A vintage color postcard showing a long, single-story motel building with a series of green and white striped awnings over its windows. The building is set back from a dirt parking area. In the foreground, a prominent sign for "ROYAL HOLIDAY MOTEL" stands vertically. The sign features a circular "AAA" logo at the top, followed by a green arch with a red vertical line through it, and the word "MOTEL" in large, bold, black letters. Below "MOTEL", another horizontal sign reads "ROYAL HOLIDAY". To the right of the main sign, there's a smaller sign indicating "VACANCY" and another "AAA" logo. Further down the pole, there's a sign for "FAMILY UNITS HEATED POOL PER RESTAURANT BEER COLOR TV" and an "ENTRANCE" sign with a left-pointing arrow. The background shows a clear blue sky with a few wispy clouds and several utility poles with streetlights.
